Longview Tract

The Longview tract is 100+/- acres of prime hunting land in Wilkinson County. The hardwood regeneration is great cover for game while the soft mast trees and acorns provide food. This property is made up of ridges and bottoms that roll down to the small, seasonal creek in the back. Food plots are already cleared and the interior road system gives great access. The property has long frontage on Waterfork road. This tract's central location puts it within easy driving distance to Macon or Atlanta. Call us today to view this property!
