

Poplar Springs Farm

Poplar Springs Farm is 145+/- acres located near Toombsboro. Approximately 71 acres is in natural regeneration with the balance in cultivated land. There is a gentle roll to the land, falling to a seasonal creek in the bottom. Several trails cross the wooded area and lead to food plots for wildlife. Speaking of wildlife, there are plenty of deer and turkey, with the occasional wild hog passing through. This property will make the perfect small farm. The cultivated land can be farmed or converted to pasture for horses or cows. Several areas of the field edge would make for great home sites. Please give us a call for more information.
