Griffin Bend

Griffin Bend is 47+/- acres located on the Ohooppee River in southern Candler county. This property features a close to 2,000 feet of frontage along a river known for its fishing and hunting. The property is covered in a mixture of hardwoods and natural pines. The tract is located behind several large tracts of land giving it more privacy and seclusion than tracts much larger. The property is accessed by a deeded easement that runs to the paved road. There is a small, rustic cabin near the front of the property that makes a perfect place to spend the night during a long weekend of hunting or fishing.
