Property Details

Address

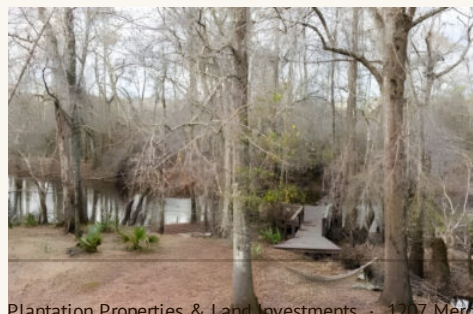

4980 Coleman Bridge Spur
Cobbtown, Georgia 30420
Tattnall County

The property includes its own private dock and is just steps away from a boat launch ramp, making it easy to spend the day floating, fishing, or exploring the river. The Ohoopsee is known for its bream and blue gill, and locals say the fishing along this stretch can be excellent. The area is also home to plenty of wood ducks, making it a great spot for wildlife watching or seasonal hunting.

Inside, this cozy cabin has been updated from top to bottom, including new plumbing, updated electrical systems, fresh flooring, foam insulation, and updated bathroom fixtures. Whether you're looking for a weekend escape or a place to enjoy the outdoors year-round, this river cabin is ready for you.

Bring your fishing poles and your love of the river. Call Daniel today to schedule your private showing.
