ALAPAHA RIVER HOMEPLACE

Atkinson County | $125,000 | 44 acres

Property Details

Alapaha River Homeplace is a 44± acre tract with 2,000 feet of Alapaha River frontage! This is an excellent opportunity to own recreational river land with plenty of high ground to start your own homeplace overlooking the property heading down to the run of the river. This tract is loaded with wildlife. Deer, Turkey, and Hog sign is evident on the property with just a brief look around. This property is essentially a blank canvas for the outdoorsman to create their perfect hunting tract however they see fit. This would be an excellent opportunity for the waterfowl hunter, whether hunting the sloughs or the Alapaha itself. There is approximately 21 acres OUT of the floodplain & wetlands area perfect for a permanent home and/or cabin! Give us a call today to see this property!
