BLUEWATER RETREAT

Laurens County | $299,000 | 40 acres

Property Details

Bluewater Retreat is a 40± acre property located in Laurens County. It features approximately 900 feet of paved road frontage along Mark Wood Road, along with a beautiful stand of old growth timber. White oak, pine, and hickory trees tower over the gently rolling terrain and ridges across the property.

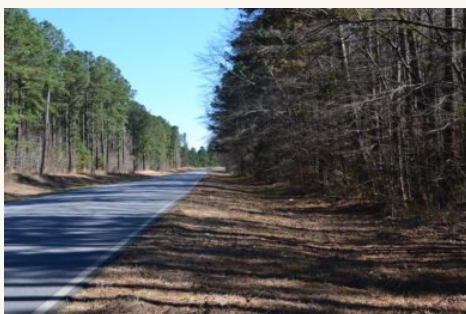

Address

Mark Wood Road
Dexter , Georgia 31019
Laurens County

Deer and turkey populations are abundant in the area, with the occasional wild pig as well. The property constitutes the upland ridges along the Bluewater Creek drainage, creating a natural travel corridor for game.

Power is available along the road and down one boundary of the property. Whether for recreation, future investment, or a large rural estate or family compound, Bluewater Retreat fits the bill while offering some of the best scenery central Georgia has to offer.
