BOWEN MILL

Bulloch County | $299,000 | 112 acres

Property Details

If you are looking for a weekend getaway, home place, investment or recreation property where you can enjoy hunting and fishing then don't miss this one of a kind property! Bowen Mill is 112± acres on Nevils Daisy Rd. and lies on the Bulloch/Evans County line. The majority of the property is made up of woodlands and wetlands on Scott Creek, which flows thru the property; making it an ideal place for duck hunting and fishing. The 1,600 sq. ft., 2 BR/1BA brick home could be used as a primary or vacation home, hunting cabin or rented for additional income; as it was previously rented for $650/month. Originally built in 1935, the home has beautiful pine floors and was recently improved with interior paint, kitchen refurbished, and a newly installed deep well. It also contains a large living room, dining room, breakfast area, sunroom, 3 fireplaces, and a large screened porch. Other structures include a 900 sq. ft., 3 car garage with "apartment" on second floor that will need complete refurbishment in order to occupy, a 1,300 sq. ft. brick building that was once a country store until the late 70's, and an 800 sq. ft. concrete block building for outdoor gatherings or fish fries. Enjoy hunting, fishing, ATV riding or just relaxing all on your own land! Conveniently located just 7 miles south of I-16, 10 miles north of Claxton, 15 miles south of Statesboro and just 45 minutes west of Savannah.
