Lincoln County | $128,800 | 16 acres

Property Details

15.99 Acre Homesite Tract Between Lincolnton & Washington, GA

If you've been searching for the ideal spot to build your dream home, this 15.99± acre tract is worth a look. Conveniently located between Lincolnton and Washington, the property combines quiet country living with easy access to shopping, dining, and schools in either town.

The land offers gently rolling topography with a mix of volunteer pines and mixed hardwoods, providing several options for homesites. Whether you envision a private drive leading to a house tucked back in the trees, or a residence with wide-open views across your acreage, this tract delivers flexibility. With plenty of room to create walking trails, gardens, or even space for animals, it's well-suited for anyone wanting to enjoy a little extra elbow room.

Paved road frontage ensures convenient access, while the surrounding rural landscape gives you the peace and privacy you've been looking for. Electricity is available at the road, and the property's size allows for a variety of layouts for your future home and outdoor living space.

Opportunities like this are hard to find — 16 acres with the potential to be both a private retreat and a forever homesite, all within a short drive of Lake Thurmond, Lincolnton, and historic Washington, GA.
