GRAHAM HOMEPLACE

Jeff Davis County | $75,000 | 26 acres

Property Details

Graham Homeplace is a 26.6± acre recreational homesite located in Jeff Davis County. The property is located off of a county maintained dirt road. An internal road running through half the property, ditches, and a drainage pipe all have been implemented to provide better access for the new land owner. The property is made up of regenerated mature hardwood pine mix. The high ground features big live oaks which would be a great center piece for your homesite. Over head power is available at the road, therefore you will be able to run a line directly to the homesite. There is deer sign located across the property. The land surrounding the tract is mostly Ag fields and Timberland, sure to hold deer for recreational use on the backside of the property. If you are looking for a homesite with acreage, you should check this property out. Call us today to schedule a showing!
