HIDDEN CREEK

Stewart County | $1,150,000 | 282 acres

Property Details

Hidden Creek is a true Outdoorsman's Paradise. This turnkey recreational home-place is a rare find in today's market. The meticulous makeup of this tract can truly only be appreciated in person. There are 5 condo deer stands on the property over looking ready to plant open areas, with wide shooting lanes that offer shots in nearly every direction. There are multiple tripod & tree stands scattered around the property in various places in which have provided the current land owner with many successful hunts. The North end of the tract offers over 40 acres of upland Pine Plantation. There are multiple hardwood bottoms great for archery. Thickets have been kept in place to provide plenty of cover for bedding. There is a year round stream that runs the eastern boundary. The southern part of the property has frontage on Hodchodkee Creek. The interior road system on the property is unmatched. There is a long primary road that essentially runs through the entire property, however there are numerous trails that split off in all directions which will allow you to slip into stands without a trace. The genetics as you can see are top notch on this tract, and this part of the state. Deer, Turkey, Hogs, Dove, & Quail have all been pursued by the current land owner for over 15 years. In addition to the one of a kind hunting property is a 2126 square foot lodge that sits in the middle of the property. The lodge was built was in 2012 and is in move in ready shape. With 3 bedrooms & 2 baths, along with a concrete basement, which has been plumbed this house could easily accommodate 10+ guests. In addition to the lodge; there is an older mobile home, and a 20x50 metal storage barn. Hidden Creek is a once in a generation property that will provide the new land owner with a lifetime of memories. If you are the in the market for a turn key recreational home-place all to yourself, then you owe it to yourself give Hidden Creek a look today!
