JOYNER OGLESBY ROAD

Burke County | $560,000 | 120 acres

Property Details

Located in southern Burke County, this 120± acre property offers a combination of comfortable country living, quality hunting, and recreational opportunities. Comprised of three parcels, the property features a diverse mix of hardwoods, mature pine timber, creek bottoms, and open acreage, creating excellent wildlife habitat and a variety of outdoor uses. The property is abundant with deer and turkey.

A 2012 mobile home provides a comfortable place to call home or a convenient basecamp for weekends in the outdoors. The 3-bedroom, 2-bath home features two porches and a fenced backyard. The property also includes 2 outbuildings, a shelter, 3 campsites and a tractor that come with the land.

Behind the home, you will find mostly mature hardwoods, with a creek flowing through the center and providing an attractive natural setting and valuable wildlife habitat. The two rear parcels offer a diverse mix of mature pine and hardwood timber, along with a large open row-crop field that could make an excellent dove field or provide additional opportunities for wildlife management.

With abundant deer and turkey, diverse habitat, established improvements, and a comfortable home, this property is well suited for a hunting retreat, recreational getaway, or permanent country residence.
