LITTLE NEW YORK – TRACT C

Laurens County | $270,900 | 86 acres

Property Details

Little New York Tract C is 86± acres located in southern Laurens County. The property has ample frontage along a county maintained dirt road. The majority of the property is timbered in loblolly pine that has been thinned to a plantation cut. The northern boundary is a hardwood bottom with a seasonal creek running through it. This area is known for great hunting. Several areas along the internal road will make good spots for food plots and other supplemental feeding. Give us a call to see a great property that will provide recreational opportunities for years to come.
