RIVERS MEET

Tattnall County | $230,000 | 93 acres

Property Details

Rivers Meet is 93± acres of recreational land on the Ochoopee & Altamaha River. The tract is bordered by Big Hammock Wildlife Management Area, which is over 5,500 acres of State of Georgia owned land. Having a well known WMA bordering the property ensures the opportunities that will be present for the new owner. Rivers Meet allows the new land owner the opportunity to own river land, with nearly 1500 ft of Ochoopee River & Altamaha River frontage. Tattnall County boat landing is located right down the road, as well as another private boat landing which borders the property. The main channel of the Altamaha River is roughly three quarters of a mile away by boat. Deer, turkey, hogs, & when the river is high, ducks can all be pursued on the property. There are ample amounts of game sign on the 93 acres. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of river land surrounded by one of the largest Wildlife Management Area's in the area. Seller will be willing to consider a land trade. Call today to set up a private showing!
