STUCKEY LANE SOUTH

Wheeler County | $140,000 | 40 acres

Property Details

Stuckey Lane South is 40± acres located between Glenwood and Alamo, Georgia. The property is conveniently located just north of HWY 280 making access easy from both western and eastern locations.

The majority of the property is upland with a seasonal creek crossing the rear of the property. There is also a power line easement across the rear of the property. Road frontage is along a county-maintained dirt road. The property is planted in planted pine that is approximately 2 years old. A main woods road leads through the heart of the tract with several smaller trails branching from it.

Game sign is found all over the property. This area is known for great hunting and producing some great bucks every year. Whether you are looking for a property to hunt, relax, or to build a home in the country, this property deserves a look. Properties of this size are increasingly harder to find and usually do not remain on the market long. This property is a portion of a larger tract. A new survey will need to be performed prior to closing to determine exact acreage. Give us a call to see a great property.
