TURKEY CREEK

Laurens County | $190,000 | 87 acres

Property Details

Turkey Creek is 86.81± acres located south of Dublin in Laurens county. It features mature hardwood, cypress and tupelo timber. The tract's main feature is over a half mile frontage on Turkey Creek. This large creek enhances the property's attractiveness to wildlife and provides some of the best fishing in the area. The property is great habitat for turkeys, deer and wild hogs. It has healthy populations of all three. Several small areas have been cleared for food plots that will complement the property's hard mast production for wildlife feed. Give us a call to tour a very unique tract in Central Georgia.
