WHITE TAIL HOMEPLACE

Evans County | $875,000 | 51 acres

Property Details

White Tail Homeplace is a charming property located in Claxton, GA. It encompasses 51± acres and features a beautiful brick home. The diverse landscape consists of planted pines, live oaks, and a pond. As you enter the property from the paved road, a private lane with a row of mature pines on each side leads all the way to the back of the property. At the front of the property, a 2-acre pond is on the left with 12± acres of pine plantation behind it and on the right is a small stand of planted pines. Just beyond these pines is an open area where the home sits and behind the home is another small stand of pine plantation. At the end of the private lane are 100-year-old Live Oaks, creating a beautiful setting for an additional home or cabin. A tractor shed sits among the oaks, providing a place to store equipment, ATVs, or hunting gear. Additionally, there are some planted pines and mixture of hardwoods & pines along the back property line.
